

Name: _____ Date: _____ Block: _____ Unit: _____

Homework 1.1: True Maps, False Impressions Annotation Practice

Directions Part 1: Annotate the reading on the other side of this page. Remember, when annotating you should:

- (1) Underline or highlight only the most important material
- (2) Circle words you don't know
- (3) Write notations in the margins.
 - Ask questions
 - make connections

Directions Part 2: Write three main points from the reading below. Think of this as a summary. Each main point should be no longer than three sentences. That means that at most you will have nine sentences below.

1.

2.

3.

Grading Rubric Check Sheet

Requirement:	Points Possible	Mr. Roth's Grade
The student underlined or highlighted the most important info.	2
The student circled unfamiliar words.	2
The student asked questions in the margins.	2
The student made connections in the margins.	2
The student wrote three main points from the reading.	2	